Do you have any medical conditions that might impede your ability to do mission work such as: building, cleaning, long periods of standing, work with children, work with the elderly? If so, please explain...

The following question is a theoretical scenario. Please do your best to answer honestly, and explain well...

Scenario: we are on our mission trip and 2 of our team members have a disagreement. One team member comes to you and asks you to take their side in the fight, and then proceeds to spread the details of the fight to other members of the mission team. How do you respond?

Scenario #2: Mission assignments have been given out at Work Camp. You ended up with a team where you don't know many people, and you are assigned to a job that you didn't particularly want. How do you respond?

Please take a moment to reflect on your faith journey thus far. Write a short testimony about how God has worked in your life up until this point.

A few closing remarks:

As a part of this mission team, you become a representative of St. John Neumann, and of Charlotte as well. BY signing the bottom of this application you are acknowledging that you will always behave respectfully and with great joy to be serving the Lord on this mission. One of the greatest things that we can do is to serve the poor and needy within our community. This is an amazing opportunity for everyone, and we will do our best to make it an enjoyable experience for each team member. You are also acknowledging, by signing this application, that you are not automatically accepted to the trip just by signing up. You will be contacted with an email to verify your mission team acceptance. Thank you for your understanding.
