Jordan Michael Horeth Scholarship Knight of Columbus – Council 7343

Purpose: To award an undergraduate scholarship of $2500 to a graduating high school senior that attends and actively participates at St. John Neumann (SJN) Catholic Church and whose family has been a contributing member (time, talent, treasure) of SJN for at least three years. This scholarship will be given to a college bound student in pursuit of furthering their education as a full-time student at an accredited college or university. The scholarship will be paid over four calendar years directly to the school. Continued eligibility will be reviewed annually. Please note that it is the sole discretion of the scholarship committee to make this award or decide to defer to a later school year.

This award is based upon:

- A. SJN Church and Community Involvement (high importance)
- B. Strength and Determination of Character (high importance)
- C. Scholarship/Academics (some importance)
- D. Financial Need (some importance)

Important dates:

- Application deadline: Friday, May 24th
*Must be in our hands by this date
- Interviews: Mandatory – May 31st between 6-9pm
- Winner awarded at Baccalaureate mass, June 4 – 5pm.
